CENTRAL

This is our life at Central--a life of interesting classes and competent teachers, lasting friendships and gay activities. It is a life of little things that hold our life apart from all others; fighting traffic jams in the hallways, walking to class with that someone special, and cheering our teams with all our hearts at every game. Ours is a life of club meetings, class projects, and impressive assemblies. It is a life we know, love, and support. Here it is we live many of the rewarding experiences of youth. Educational, social, individualistic, enthusiastic--Central is all this and more.

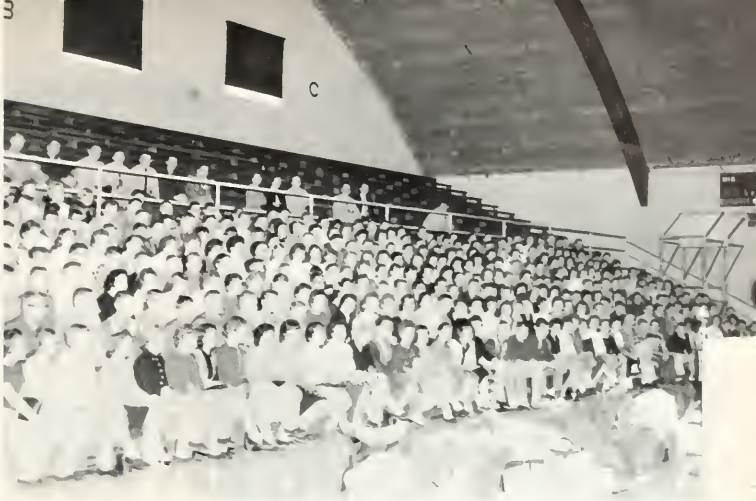
The Cen-Trails staff has attempted to put into words and pictures what it really is to have--A LIFE AT CENTRAL.

SCHOOL TRANSPORTATION On one of the school's fourteen busses starts the day for many of Central's students.

Summer

NEWS TRAVELS fast as Centralites huddle around lockers to let slip the latest secrets or discuss last nights ball game.

APPETITES GROW as students line up for a hot lunch. The long walk to the modern cafeteria will arouse hunger if not the morning classwork. CROWDED INTERSECTIONS and the water fountain lineup are becoming traditional at Central as students change classes during the three minute intermission after fifty-seven minutes of class.



ASSEMBLY SESSIONS are often a welcome relief from the monotony of class rooms. Pep sessions, semi-weekly chapel programs, and talented performances were the subject of assemblies.

Leisure Ended As "Old Routine" of School Began

After Hours Are Filled with

The turning of the calendar to September meant the end of another three months of fun and frolicking in the lazy summer silence; another school year had begun.

Then started the routine of class work, lunch lines, and crowded halls. Day after day we followed the regular routine, but with hardly a dull moment. Our spare time was taken up by club projects, assemblies, and chats around a locker cluttered with last week's homework, an overdue book, and pictures of Ricky and Elvis.

PART-TIME JOB for Diane Baumgartner and Sharon Mattax is found at the Family Inn Restaurant. Many students are earning their own money for clothes, school expense, and maybe college.

SENIOR HOMEROOM was the scene of many and varied topics of ball games, dates, or home work.

CANDY BARS gave students needed energy before starting in on the afternoon classes. The candy counter was operated by the students.

Jobs, Fads, Parties, and Youth Groups

Fads of pegged slacks, knee high bobby socks, or poodle haircuts were often the topic of discussion.

A busy day didn't always end with the 3:26 bell. There were part time jobs to earn a little spending money for a dress, a new muffler for the hot rod, or a Friday night date.

4-H clubs, local church youth fellowship groups, or a party after a ball game gave teenagers a chance to make new friends or be with old friends.

SOMETHING MYSTERIOUS seems to be in the air at Jean Smith's party, judging from the faces of these party goers.

KEEPING SCORE will be done accurately by the junior sponsors with so many watchful eyes on them. A bowling party was something new in the way of class parties for the juniors.

STRENUOUS EXCERCISE at the bowling party left Phil Shoaf and Steve Hike in the need of a rest.

A Life of Royalty

It's Tuesday night, December 8, during the half of the preliminary game between Chester and Adams Central; the night of the crowning of the Cen-Trails King and Queen. The curtains to the star-studded stage have been opened and the candidates, wearing white corsages, have taken their places. The auditorium grows tense and quiet waiting for the announcement.

Well, come on, who is it?

The 1960 Cen-Trails King and Queen are Larry Foreman and Lois Steury. Then, amid loud and happy cheers, Lois received a dozen long stem roses from the flower girl and kneeled as Larry crowned her Cen-Trails Queen. The Freshman Girls' Trio ended the grand ceremony singing "The Sweetheart of Central High."

Jeannie Smith escorted by Bob Hart.

Flower Girl and Crownbearer Debie Nussbaum and Craig Barkley.

Twila Arnold escorted by Loren Habegger.

Jeanne Kaehr escorted by Jim Brown.

Math and Science Courses Prepare

Freshman biology classes, taught by Mr. Stork, studied the lives of plants, animals, and human beings. Collecting leaves and insects, and also disecting fish and grasshoppers helped these freshmen learn more about the structure and various habitats of life.

Physics class dealt with matter, energy, and the physical changes which matter undergoes. These students delved into mechanics, heat, sound, light, electricity, and nuclear physics. This class, which was taught by Mr. Allspaw, was used by many junior and senior boys as a preparatory course for college.

COLLECTING INSECTS in freshman biology proves to be interesting for Eddie Hirschy, Steve Schlickman and Marilyn Vizard.

PHYSICS PRINCIPLES on ropes and pulleys is demonstrated to Jack Wulliman, Sidney Schwartz, Denny Mertz, and Tony Sharp, by Junior Hollinger.

Students for a World of "Sputniks"

The 'Rithmetic of the three R's in high school brings important changes by helping some freshmen learn to work equations in algebra, while others study general mathematics.

A greater challenge of proving theroms and angles is the elective choice of many sophomores.

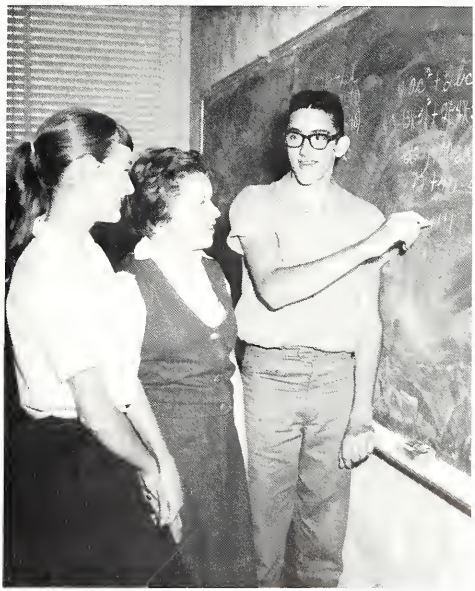
The math majors in junior and senior classes are busy learning the basic fundamentals of trigonometry in preparation for further mathematics study or for their careers.

Miss Lucile Beavers is guiding the efforts of all math classes except general mathematics, which is under the direction of Mr. Miller.

SLIDE RULES help solve a trig problem for Larry Foreman, Roy Mazelin, Leon Gerber, Larry Decker, and Regie Welch.

ORIGINAL DRAWINGS being compared, challenged the creative ability of students in the sophomore geometry class.

FRESHMAN ALGEBRA problem on the blackboard was explained to Sylvia Miller and Karen Shoaf by Gary Workinger.



Languages and Social Studies

A large per cent of Centralites were enrolled in languages this year. English, Latin I, and Central's first year of Latin II made up the language department.

Latin students, under the instruction of Mrs. Stucky, enjoyed many interesting discussions on ancient Rome and its customs. Learning new words and the sources of many English words held new interests for each member of the classes. Translating Latin into English occupied most of the class period; however, each Friday a report about a Latin god or goddess was given by a different pupil.

Freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors were enrolled in English with Mrs. Stucky, Mr. Shoup, Miss Beavers, and Mr. Sprunger, respectively, as teachers. They studied sentence structure, types of sentences, read books, gave speeches, and expressed themselves by writing.

WRITING ABILITIES are important for communication in a modern world. Delora Mishler, Ted Helmerich, Dick Stiener, and Carol Hamilton compare their English themes.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE is gaining recognition on A.C.'s curriculum. Sandy Strickler puts Latin words on the board for Lana McBride and Twila Arnold to translate.

Produce Better Americans

A DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT needs informed citizens. Doris Myers, Jim Brown, and Phil McBride study how our government is operated.

History is the narration of facts and events of the past. It is a survey of man's life, as revealed by documents and archeological relics.

History is divided into two groups, World history taught by Mr. Haggard and studied by sophomores, and American history taught by Mr. Haggard and Mr. Sprunger, studied by juniors.

One day a week the history classes have a newspaper which they study for that day, namely "The American Observer." This weekly paper has news and issues with pros and cons on world affairs.

Government and sociology, the administration of public affairs which is an established state of legal authority, is taught by Mr. Shoup and studied by the seniors.

AMERICAN HISTORY is the topic of Karen Cauble, Max Moser, Kenny Reed and Gyneth Schnepp.

OFFICE PRACTICE students, Sandy Collins, Mabel Bowers, Carole Miller, and Nancy Bercot learn how to mimeograph copy.

KEEPING ACCOUNTS straight in bookkeeping is being learned by Janet Beer, Bob Hart, and Sandy Sanders.

Minds Focus on the Future As Students

BUSINESS COURSES

The doors to many profitable positions in the business world are opened by business education courses. These courses start in the sophomore year with general business and continue in the junior and senior years with bookkeeping, typing, commercial arithmetic, shorthand, and office practice.

Mr. Miller, Mrs. Archbold, Mr. Fruth, and Mr. Frantz teach these courses.

TYPEWRITER SETTINGS are being showed to Carolyn Onalee Barkley in typing class.

HOME EC. class is giving Mary Jo Kaehr, Susan Cook, and Jane Kaehr lessons in sewing.

NEW CLASSROOM and farm shop for the ag boys is where the cafeteria used to be.

Enter Business and Vocational Courses

For those not planning on attending college Adam Central's vocational courses prepare students for their life work.

Practical training in home economics is given by Mrs. Neilson in grade eight through twelve. Eighth grade boys receive one semester of shop under Mr. Collier and one semester of vocational agriculture under Mr. Watson. All freshmen and sophomores take one of the vocational courses and may continue in the junior and senior year if they choose.

Senior agriculture and home economics students gained unusual experience when they exchanged courses for a two week period.

INDUSTRIAL ART students, Gene Ratcliff and John Inniger, are using the shop's new modern saw.

Art and Music Courses Develop Raw Talent

Pupils in grades one to six are developing new interests through art and music. These are the every day talents brought out to grow through culture.

The art pupils find many different ways to enjoy art. Examples include drawing, painting, paper sculpture, and experimenting with materials. The creative works in art are encouraged by Mr. Hubert Feasel.

Music department pupils also have active schedules. Mr. Leon Gerig is the director of vocal music while Mr. Don Gerig teaches instrumental study to these grade students. The varied routine of a music class includes singing, listening to records, watching films, marching to songs, and talent contests.

ARTISTIC TALENT of Sandra Teeter, Miriam Yager, Gloria Rupert, and Kathy Michaels can be seen in the eighth grade art class.

GROUP SINGING is an enjoyable period for these seventh grade girls.

LUNG POWER is displayed by Carrie Gerber, Brian Schwartz, and Tad Wulliman on their trumpets.

Drivers Training and Physical Education

The ability to know how to drive right, when you drive, is taught in our drivers training class. Sophomore boys and girls are enrolled in the drivers training class and instructed by Mr. Ron Stork. Our 1959 drivers training car was purchased by the Moser Motor Sales of Berne and is used daily as a practical example for driving safely under experienced guidance.

Freshmen and sophomores are required to take physical education taught by Mrs. Archbold and Mr. Miller. Upperclassmen take part in intramural sports which are played at the noon hour and officiated by high school boys.

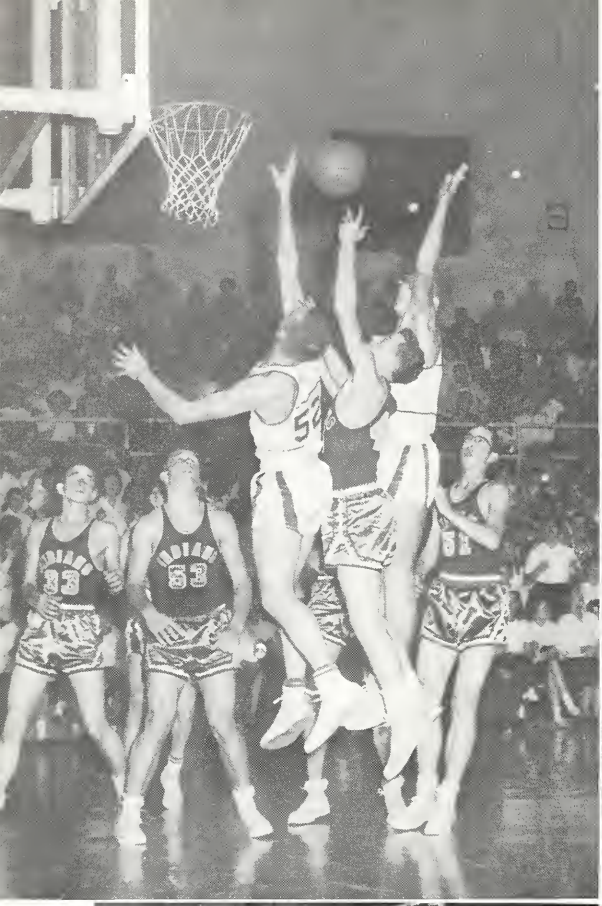
LADY DRIVERS, Barbara Brandenburg and Juanita Stout, receive a few tips from Mr. Stork before driving.

BASKETBALL FUNDAMENTALS is just a part of the training taught by Mr. Miller to these seventh grade boys in physical education.

A LIFE OF SPORTS

Central teams have always played hard and clean with a competitive spirit to win and put their school on top. In every sport, these teams have a successful record of enjoyment and satisfaction derived, and characters built.

FOUR CHEERS for the varsity says the Greyhound cheerleaders Sandy Strickler, Marcia Zimmerman, Rosemary Schlickman, and Dixie Smith.



KEEN COMPETITION against larger schools than previous years kept the varsity jumping. Larry Foreman and Jim Brown were first and second place scorers, respectively, Larry also placed third in the county scoring column.

ABOVE--JUMPING CENTER started another fast--moving game. Except for tourney games, the Greyhounds were undefeated on the home floor.

LEFT--TIMEOUT HUDDLE gave the team a short time to catch their breath and discuss the strategy.

KNEELING: Bob Hart, Sidney Schwartz, Glen Yager, Clayton Strickler, Dick Steiner, and Duane Arnold.
STANDING: Amzie Miller, Coach, Jerry Hirschy, Jim Brown, Larry Foreman, Jerry Funk, Larry Funk and Claude Striker.

Greyhounds Turn in 16 Win—6 Loss Record

A record of 16 wins and 6 losses represents one of the best records of an Adams Central varsity and placed them second in county standings. A four and one record in Eastern Wabash Valley Conference competition put Central in a tie with Berne and Geneva for the conference basketball championship.

Not including sectional competition, Larry Foreman led the team in scoring with 313 points while Jerry Funk set the pace percentage wise with a .531 percentage from the field. A .737 average won the free throw award for Jerry Hirschy. Foreman pulled down the most rebounds, 300, and Claude Striker fed the most assists, 101. Jerry Hirschy made the fewest mistakes.

STUDENT MANAGERS, Jerry Schwartz, Dave Houck, Roger Roth, and Garry Bluhm, perform jobs ranging from keeping charts at ball games to cleaning basketballs.

Go, You Fighting Greyhounds!

A PEP PARADE of decorated floats from various clubs, the band, and the basketball team riding the local fire truck put the team and fans in high spirits for the season opener.

"Go, you fighting Greyhounds!" yelled the over-anxious team boosters donned in the traditional red and white.

Central's spirited cheerleaders and Pep Club backed their Greyhounds through rain or shine with pep rallies, new yells, and the new school song written by Mr. Leon Gerig, Donna Shoaf, and Ron Owens to the tune of "The Victors."

Second and Frosh Teams

The second team average was above par with a record of 9 wins and 7 loses. In the County Tourney they walloped Decatur Catholic, but went on to lose to Berne by a 47-27 score. Top in scoring was Lloyd Knittles with a 14 plus average.

The freshman team had their troubles with a record of 0 wins and 7 loses. The team's main troubles were lack of size and poor outside shooting.

Sluggers Initiate Improved Field

The A.C. sluggers, with a team that was lacking in experience, finished with an average season of four wins and four losses. Clayton Strickler led the pitching squad with four wins and two losses while Lloyd Knittle paced the offensive effort with a .316 batting average.

The team was the first to initiate the adequate new backstop and dugouts which made the playing field more desirable.

WARMING UP in the batter's circle, Larry Foreman awaits his chance for a swing at the ball.

Cindermen Set Fast Pace

GIRLS INTRAMURAL provided fun and excerise for the more energetic girls.

BELOW--BOYS INTRAMURAL gave boys who were not on the basketball team a chance to play basketball. Many games were almost as tense and exciting as a varsity game.

Noon-Hour Sports

Larry Funk's Jokers won the boys' intramural tourney. The members are as follows: Tony Sharp, Tim Ringger, Ron Owens, Mike Ripley, Allen Freels, Dave Lister, Delbert Fox, and Bob Christner.

The Rockettes won the girls' intramural tourney. The members are as follows: Gyneth Schneep, captain, Judy Arnold, Barbra Wolff, Rose Gerber, Sue Strickler, Jayne Jennings, Susie Frank, and Alice Steiner.

Following the close of the basketball season, noon-hour sports focused on intramural volleyball, a foul-shooting tournament, and tourneys in ping-pong of boys, girls, boys doubles, girls doubles, and mixed doubles.

SIXTH GRADE boys showed much promise as future ball players in games against sixth graders from neighboring schools.

A LIFE OF ACTIVITIES

A well-rounded day at Adams Central consists of some work and play, use of the mind and muscles; some solitude and companionship. While school does not occupy all of the Centralite's life.

This year a new club has been added--Youth for Christ. In addition to clubs are classroom and after school activities and sports.

FUTURE BAND MEMBERS are taught some of the fundamentals of band playing by Mr. Gerig.

Performances Require Teamwork for Senior

FIRST ROW: J. Royer, J. Yoder, N. Sterry, S. Helmerich, G. Schnepp, A. Singleton, J. Yoder, B. Wolf, S. Mattax, T. Rupert, A. Smith, D. Arnold, J. Ross, T. Arnold, S. Wagley, M. Busse. SECOND ROW: K. Bertsch, G. Workinger, J. Kaehr, D. Moser.

TWIRLERS: Toni Rupert, Arvilla Smith, Barbara Wolf, Jeannie Smith, Janis Yoder, Sharon Mattax, and Annie Singleton.

Band and Instrumental Ensemble Members

The Adams Central sixty-eight piece Senior Band, under the direction of Don Gerig, participate in many fall and summer parades.

A new attraction this year is the Terrific Twenty and the former County Band. The members of these two organizations are chosen by their musical ability. Adams Central was well represented this year by the Senior, Junior, Intermediate, Beginner, Fluteophone, and Rhythm bands who gave a combined final performance.

The Clarinet Trio, mixed Clarinet and Saxophone quartets, and Brass Sextet entered the district music contest in Fort Wayne.

Rosalyn Mishler, Alice Steiner, Althea Wulliman, and Judy Arnold compose the Clarinet Quartet.

Vocal Talents Are Displayed in Choir,

FIRST ROW: Mr, Leon Gerig, director, T. Rupert, A. Johnson, T. Arnold, D. Shoaf, M. Vizard, J. Arnold, N. Steury, H. Hirschy, S. Mattax, J. Roth, K. Rich, S. Helmerich. SECOND ROW: A. Singleton, L. The vocal groups, directed by Mr. Leon Gerig, followed a very active schedule this year. The concert choir participated in various contests, in the spring and fall concert, and at church and P.T.A. programs. Scarlet robes with white stoles, purchased this year by the Music Loyalty Club, added to the appearance of the concert choir.

The smaller groups such as the junior girls quartet, the senior and freshman trios, the girls' ensemble, and the newly organized boys' glee club sang at contests, in churches, and at choir presentations.

Along with special rehearsals, the choir met the first period on Mondays and Tuesdays, and the smaller groups assembled at noon hours.

The junior choir sang at chapel services, at the spring concert, and at P.T.A. programs.

Character, Service, Leadership, and Scholarship are the qualities represented in the National Honor Society's emblem. The society, in its third year of active participation at Central, is an organization to create enthusiasm for worthy leadership and scholarship in secondary schools.

Elected members must maintain a B average, and are eligible for probation at any time.

The formal induction of six new members was witnessed by the student body in the fall.

Youth Living Christ on Campus

The Bible Club, with its sponsor, Mr. Leon Gerig, met bi-weekly after school in this, its first year at Adams Central. The purpose of this organization, associated with the National Youth for Christ, is to bind students in Christian fellowship at school for "living Christ on campus." Each Bible Club has a Bible quiz team that competes with other clubs starting in the county leagues and advancing to state contests.

President Lois Steury and Secretary & Treasurer, Carolyn Yake plan for the next Bible Club meeting. Onalee Barkley, Vice President, is not pictured.

Gazette Reports Activities and Sports

Extra, Extra, read all about it! That is, read all about it in the "Greyhound Gazette," Central's bi-weekly, four page newspaper. At sectional time, a tourney issue was provided for readers, featuring the team, coach, and pep club. The "Greyhound Gazette" is a member of the Quill and Scroll, an Indiana High School Press Association. "Gazette" helped send Rosemary Schlickman and Sandra Strickler to Indiana Journalism Institute for two weeks during summer. Work this year could not have been accomplished without the co-operation from each staff member who is exercising his interest in journalism, plus the able supervising of the "Greyhound Gazette" advisor, Mr. Sprunger.

Annual Brings School Life into the Home

The purpose of an annual is to bring about a greater degree of understanding between the home and school. This is done by showing in pictures and short stories what happens in classes and extra-curicular activities.

Much hard work was spent soliciting ads, writing and rewriting copy, taking pictures, and finally, preparing the dummy sheets.

Editor Loren Habegger and assistant editor Rosalyn Mishler, along with the sponsor, Mr. Shoup, led the other thirty-two members of the annual staff through four deadlines.

Loren and Rosalyn brought many new ideas from two weeks summer schooling at Indiana University.

REVIEWING THE PLAN BOOK are Loren Habegger, Editor; Mr. Shoup, Sponsor; Rosalyn Mishler, Assistant Editor; and David Houck, Photographer.

Sunshine Society Pledges to Make

The ninety-five Sunshine Society girls under the sponsorship of Mrs. Stucky and Mrs. Neilson pledged to make our community a better place in which to live. Each girl selected an "ideal lady" with whom she exchanged gifts on various occasions throughout the year. The girl remained a secret to the lady until the Spring Tea.

A formal initiation of new members was held at the Monroe Methodist Church. Other social events included a "Daddy Date Night," "Hawaiian Holiday," "Best Beau Banquet," and monthly meetings. District and state conventions were attended by many girls in the fall and spring.

Delora Mishler and Onalee Barkley brought new ideas home from Summer Camp to make this a very interesting year.

Adams Central F. F. A. Chapter Is Successful

Adams Central has been very active the past eight years in F.F.A. work and supervised farm program work. The chapter had five boys who made the State Chapter Degree in 1959, John Inniger, Clair Inniger, Jerry Schwartz, John Lantz, and Jerry Gerber.

The soils judging team of Loren Habegger, Roy Mazelin, Phil Gerber, and Clair Inniger placed third in the national contest in Oklahoma. Roy Mazelin, Jerry Schwartz, Tony Sharp, and Larry Funk's team placed high in the state fair dairy judging contest in September, 1959. The chapter placed well in many other county and district contests.

The chapter is one of the thirty-six out of 354 chapters rated as a First Class Department, and it was awarded the Silver Emblem in the State Chapter Contest at Purdue in April, 1959. Basketball, Softball, and swimming provide recreation.

Forty-seven students are in the Chapter.

In its fourth year at Adams Central, the Rifle Club participated in several shooting matches against other clubs. The sharpshooters practiced during evenings on the fifty foot shooting range in the shop. Safety and care of the gun was stressed along with marksmanship. The club, sponsored by Mr. Collier, is a member of the National Rifle Association.

By experimenting with different types of printing papers, length of time exposures, and developing and enlarging techniques, the Photography Club members gained experience in their photography hobby.

Organized the second semester, the club met on Monday evenings after school to use the darkroom. Mr. Feasal sponsored the club.

P. T. A. and Music Loyalty Club Aid School

With its monthly meetings, chili supper, panel discussions, Christmas Program, and pre-school round-up, the Parent-Teacher Association carries out its objective: "to bring closer relationship between the home and the school that parents and teachers may co-operate intelligently in the training of the child."

1959-'60 officers were: Earl Harmon, president; first and second vice president respectively, Chalmer Barkley and Herman Frantz; Secretary, Mrs. Leroy Kolter; Treasurer, Laurel Mattax; and historian, Mrs. Paul Nussbaum.

Helping to support both music departments at AC is our Music Loyalty Club. This parental booster club is in its first complete year after being started in the spring of '59 and is made up of the parents with students involved in these departments. Projects supported by this organization included birthday calendars and a smorgasborg, the proceeds going to purchase choir robes, additional band uniforms, and band instruments.

CHOIR ROBES being inspected by several Music Loyalty Club members, were paid in part by the sale of the pictured birthday calendars and other club projects.

A LIFE OF PEOPLE

In the complex society of today man must be able to live with his fellow man.

A freshman in a school is just another fish in the pond. He has to learn to accept discipline and he learns the true meaning of friendship. A sophomore is learning to step out and make decisions for himself. A junior learns the value of being a good leader. A senior has the ruling hand over his underclassmen, but he must learn not to abuse his authority.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES such as the pep rally teaches students how to get along socially with their classmates.

Are a Tribute to Its Administrators

To the Seniors:

This book will preserve many wonderful memories that will be cherished more as the years go by.

It is my hope that you have learned many things in the art of living. I hope you have learned your daily lessons, but just as important are such things as: kindness, thoughtfulness of others, cheerfulness, and that the only way to receive happiness is to divide it with others. Perhaps you have learned that good friends are the greatest of treasures and that courtesy ranks with courage in the heart of a real gentleman.

If you have learned these things even in a small measure the school has played its roll in the building of moral and spiritual values in youth.

Herman E. Frantz

OUR PRINCIPAL, Mr. Frantz, has many duties to perform in order to keep Adams Central's standards high. He also teaches bookkeeping. He has received an A.B. degree from Manchester College, an M.A. degree from Indiana University, and has studied at Colorado University.

Nineteen Hundred and Sixty . . .

Our Year at Central

Ahem--Seniors!

With eleven years of school behind us, we couldn't help but feel just a mite proud as we entered Adams Central for the last time.

We remembered the fun and work we had in our three previous years of high school. There were class parties, roller skating parties, the drive on magazines sales, and presenting The Perfect Circle Singing Secretaries from Haggerstown. And how can we forget freshman initiation!

But the senior year was the year of years. We forgot some of our pride as our time was taken up with magazine sales, Christmas card sales, concessions at all home games and tourney games, senior pictures, name cards, ordering caps and gowns, and sending invitations to graduation ceremonies. Payment for our efforts on class projects came by way of a class trip by bus to Washington D.C. in the spring.

As our Class of fifty-four seniors receive our diplomas we realize that any success that comes our way will in part be a tribute to Adams Central and its teachers.
